Phoenix, AZ; August 9:-- Principal photography on NETHERBEAST INCORPORATED, a comic look at office politics as told through the eyes of a 200 year-old pencil-pushing vampire, begins August 14th in Arizona.

Award-winners Brian and Dean Ronalds will produce and direct an ensemble cast that includes: Steve Burns (Blues Clues); Amy Davidson (8 Simple Rules); Dave Foley (Kids in the Hall, News Radio); Darrell Hammond (Saturday Night Live); Jason Mewes (Clerks, Clerks II); Judd Nelson (Breakfast Club, Suddenly Susan); and Robert Wagner (Austin Powers, Hart to Hart).

NETHERBEAST is a quirky twist of the vampire tale, set in modern day corporate America. Employees of NETHERBEAST have kept the family secret for years. It's business as usual until the top vamp in charge contracts a dreaded disease and invites the first humans to the office in more than a century. Employees soon discover some of their associates are not what they appear to be -- especially that dead one in the cubicle with a wooden stake in his heart...

NETHERBEAST is based on the Ronalds Brothers' award-winning short The Netherbeast of Berm-Tech Industries, Inc., which took Best Screenplay at the London International Festival of Science Fiction and Fantastic Film; Best Comedy Short at Filmstock; Best Comedy Short at the Long Island Film Expo and at the Toofy Film Festival; and was the Micro Short Hall of Fame Winner at the International Horror and Sci-Fi Film Festival, among other awards and rave reviews. Both Brian and Dean Ronalds were named Best Arizona Filmmakers of the Year at the 2005 Phoenix Film Festival. This will be their feature film debut.

NETHERBEAST is directed by Dean Ronalds and was written by Bruce Dellis. Kevin Berman and F. Miguel Valenti (The Lost Skeleton of Cadavra, VIG) are Executive Producers, with the Ronalds brothers and Chris LaMont (Film Club) producing. Co-producers are Andy Nelson and Hollywood Phoenix Studios.
